Welcome

Welcome to Dangs, a bar built on the tales of old, a hidden siam influenced speakeasy with notes of deep red inspirations of the orient.

Named after the owners red hair when born – a sign of good fortune, Dangs cocktails, food and service are created to come together to help give you the feelings of the far east in east London.

We hope you enjoy the thought and care we have put into trying to make this an enjoyable experience for all.

Love from Dangs and the team
